Maine Homeless Management Information System

We use this system to share information with other local organizations so we can serve you better!

Your Information

- When you share your information with us, we can share it with other organizations that offer services that could help you too.
- If you need help from other organizations, you may not have to repeat your information again.
- We have to collect some personal information because it is the law. It is also part of how we are funded to help people.

- We respect your privacy. We have strict rules to keep your information private. Those rules are our privacy policy. You can look at our privacy policy if you are interested.
- We will not share your information without asking, except when the law requires it, or when we have to share basic information about our clients with our funders. If we do have to share your information without asking you first, we will stick to our privacy policy to keep your information as private as we can and protect your identity.
- We will still help you if you are not sure you want to share your information. We will still help you if you decide you do not want to share your information. It is your choice.
